MISS REBE HILL SHIELDS

Miss Rebe Hill Shields was a charming hostess Tuesday night at a card party in honor of her brother and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Shields, of Durham.

The lovely decorations of holly and mistletoe gave a Christmas note of festivity to the evening, and the house was further beautified by vases of cut flowers.

The guests were greeted at the door by the hostess and invited into the living room where five tables were arranged for bridge and other card games. Salted nuts were placed on each table, and an enjoyable sweet course was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Anne Alexander and Mrs. D. F. Bryant.

Mrs. W. D. Shields wore a lovely gown of terra cotta georgette handsomely embroidered beads.

Those playing were: Miss Epebyn Kitchin, Miss Mary Lamb, Miss Bertha Albertson, Miss Margaret Meredith, Miss Nannie Lamb, Miss Anne Alexander, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Miss Rebe Shields, Miss Thomas, of Petersburg, Mrs. L. H. Justice, of Littleton, Mr. C. H. Smith, Mr. Charlie Lamb, Mr. Frank Smith, Mr. W. J. Smith, Jr., Mr. P. E. Shields, Mr. A. L. Purington, Jr., of Durham, Mr. Earl Ward, of Durham, Mr. Louis Kitchin, Mr. Spencer Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Shields and Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Bryant.

WOMANLY TROUBLES

'Twas Hard for Her to Stop Work,
But This Texas Lady Says She
Had to Go to Bed.—
Helped by Cardui.

Salado, Texas.—"I suffered a great deal with womanly troubles," says Miss Ira Lillian Hart, of Route 1, this place. "I would, for a day or two, feel drowsy, stupid and listless; didn't feel like doing my work."

"I would suffer pains in my sides and back, and very severe headaches."

"I am the housekeeper, and it was very hard for me to stop, but I would get in such a misery I would have to go to bed. I heard of Cardui, and that it was good for this suffering. The very first bottle I took seemed to help me. I did not suffer near so much, so I sent for the second. It did so much good for me, I can't say enough for Cardui, for it certainly was a friend in need."

Women who feel the need of something to help relieve, or prevent, such troubles, should profit by the experience of thousands of other women, and try this mild, harmless tonic.
